Valentine's Day is almost here. Classes will be having a party!

Please remember to not send in chocolate or anything with nuts since we have several students with severe nut allergies. We'd like to promote sending in "healthy" treats for the parties. Suggestions: Apple or orange slices, grapes, pretzels, carrots

What can you do at home to help your child learn?

- Name the letters of the alphabet.
- Sit and listen to a book.
- Retell events from a favorite story.
- Draw and write shapes, letters & numbers.
- Write his/her first name.
- Recite address, phone number, birthday
- Tell a story through drawing and/or writing.
- Sort objects by color or size
- Make simple patterns with blocks, (red, yellow, red, yellow...)
- Use scissors to cut out simple shapes, (circle, square, triangle)
- Count to 10 (3 year olds), count to 20 (4/5 year olds)
- Put on coat & zip/button independently.

Teaching your child at home can be fun, rewarding, and one of the greatest things you can do for them!

We hope everyone has a wonderful February! If you ever have any questions/concerns, please contact me. amyfeagle@yahoo.com
