

Mrs. Morgan
Tuesday/Thursday
Morning 3's

Dear Families,

This month the children will continue to practice alphabet letters, tracing and working towards writing their first names. Please practice with your students at home. Begin having your child trace their first name and gradually work towards independently writing their name. It is best for your child to use correct pincher pencil grip. One way to accomplish this is to use short broken crayons or small nubs of pencils so that it is difficult for the child to use a fist grasp.

Our Christian value this month is Gentleness. We will explore ways to be gentle with each other, our toys, breakable items, and our surroundings. We will talk about healthy foods for our body and snacks that are treats to have only occasionally. Our class will explore the themes of Geometry and fractions in relatable ways. We will be using measurement devices to make a class snack mix! The winter season is here to stay for awhile so we will explore snow, ice and the season!

I am having so much fun exploring new themes with your children! Have a safe and fun filled January!

If your child memorizes their bible verse above and recites in class, they will receive a prize from the prize box!

*Please continue reading at home with your child! They LOVE story time and often ask for me to read more books to them during free play! If you return your list of 20 books read with your child, they receive a prize from the prize box! I will be sending home a new reading log sheet at the beginning of the month incase yours has been misplaced! Thank you for encouraging your child to love books and reading, I can tell they are getting lots of story time at home!
